

2012 Report from the International Funboard Class Association to the ISAF Windsurfing & Kiteboarding Committee

Membership - 27 countries, representing 5 continents.
Interest in funboard competition, in all disciplines, is still growing.

Slalom

The Slalom World Championship (Men) were held on Paros, Greece, in September.
World Champion – Gonzalo Costa Hoevel (ARG)

The Slalom Youth/Masters World Championships were held on Lake Garda, Torbole, Italy, in July.

Youth World Champion – Benoit Jacquier (FRA)
Masters world Champion – Andrea Rosati (ITA)

The Slalom Womens World Championship took place on Bay of Roses, Spain, in May.
World Champion – Karin Jaggi (SUI)

The European Championships also took place on Bay of Roses, Spain, in May.
European Champion: Matteo Iachino (ITA)

Freestyle

The Junior & Youth World Championships were organized in Marseille, France in June.
Junior Champion – Steven Max (ARU)
Youth Champion - Nick Van Ingen (NED)

The European Championship was sanctioned through the EFPT (European Freestyle Pro Tour) and has one event to be completed on the tour calendar, in Weymouth, UK.

The European Junior and Youth Championships takes place in Croatia in November.

Future

IFCA continue to work for the expansion of all disciplines in all continents.

Bruno De Wannemaeker – President.

<http://ifca.internationalwindsurfing.com/>