

2012 Report to the ISAF Windsurfing & Kiteboarding Committee

Neil Pryde Racing Series Tour

After the successful inaugural year, NeilPryde Racing Series brought together 8 great venues for the 2012 Tour, featuring an attractive and dynamic race format making racing a spectacle for the watching crowds and allowing windsurfers of all levels, ages and genders to compete together.

Pattaya (Thailand) - 5th and 6th, May Istanbul (Turkey) - 9th and 10th, June *
Porto (Portugal) - 7th and 8th, July *
Cardiff (UK) - 1st and 2nd, September *
Torbole (Italy) – 22nd and 23rd, September *
Nice (France) - 20th and 21th, October *
Hong Kong - 24th and 25th, November
Rio (Brazil) - 1st and 2nd, December *

*Powered by the Extreme Sailing Series

In August Neil Pryde announced a partnership between the Racing Series and Jaguar Cars.

European Championships

The first class championship was hosted by Sopocki Klub Zeglarski in Sopot, Poland.
Champions: Marcin Urbanowicz (POL); Natalia Wojcik (POL)

World Championships

From the 10th to the 15th of December 2012 the beautiful island of Boracay, in the Philippines will play host to the inaugural world championships of the RS:One Class.

Neil Pryde explains "The real advantage that Boracay has over other Asian destinations is the reliability of the north easterly wind. To organize major events, we need reliable conditions and this is what Boracay offers plus an exciting night life off the water" ...

It is going to be a great end to this years RS:One racing !

For full details of this years activities:

http://internationalwindsurfing.com/windsurfing_competition_0324v01.htm