

UKWA CLACTON SLALOM - SEA & BEACH FESTIVAL

Including an "Open" International Slalom Competition – an IFCA Ranking Event

On Saturday 25th and Sunday 26th June 2016, the UKWA (United Kingdom Windsurfing Association) will be hosting Windsurfing Slalom racing as part of the inaugural International/National Watersports Championships - consisting of Kite, Sup & Windsurfing - as part of this year's Clacton Sea and Beach Festival. There will be a range of categories to suit all abilities - novice, amateur and professional.

This is the 2nd year of the festival which attracted over 50 thousand visitors in 2015. The town's carnival atmosphere, with live music and numerous activities for onlookers to participate in throughout the weekend, is sure to attract even more competitors and visitors in 2016.

There will be £2000 prize fund distributed as follows:

Professional Fleet

1st £750
2nd £500
3rd £250
4th £100
5th £50

Amateur Fleet

1st £75
2nd £50
3rd £25

Ladies Fleet

£150 Prize money will be distributed dependent on ladies categories over the weekend.

A sailor must be a current member of the UKWA in order to compete or a non-UK resident who is a member of either their national windsurfing association or an ISAF Member National Authority. Temporary membership may be extended to all fleets once only and to Master Blaster competitors.
