

THE INTERNATIONAL SPEED WINDSURFING CLASS

2014 Report from ISWC to the Windsurfing & Kiteboarding Committee

The ISWC has had a successful year with National Championships in Germany, United Kingdom and Spain.

European Championships were held on the island of Fuerteventura in the Canary Islands. A truly multi-european fleet took part with Bjorn Dunkerbeck, sailing for Switzerland, in the mens fleet, and Zara Davis, from the UK in the womens fleet, taking the titles.

World Championships are planned for Cape Town early next year; and a Europeans returning to Fuerteventura in June 2015 is confirmed.

Luderitz 2014

The Luderitz Speed Challenge is an annual speed sailing event, held since 2007 in Luderitz, Namibia, in the southern hemisphere spring. It is observed by the World Sailing Speed Record Council (WSSRC) the body recognised by ISAF
